To

The Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments,
Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that in a recent case placed before the City Magistrate under the Regulation to prevent cruelty to animals, the Magistrate was requested to send a badly wounded horse for treatment to the infirmary under Section 6 (3) of that Regulation, but the Magistrate said that he could not do so as there was no such infirmary established in the City.

2. Horses with open sores and cuts of a serious nature are frequently found harnessed to jutkas and they do not, as a rule, get properly treated by their owners. It would not only be in the interests of these dumb animals to get treated properly at the hand of duly qualified surgeons, but the drivers will also be under the obligation of paying for their treatment, when they do not themselves attend to their care, if the animals are ordered to be kept in the infirmary, which purpose the Veterinary Hospital at Basavangudi may serve for the
